

Commercial grade sea-loads CFD

- Methods for obtaining realistic sea-loads by use of commercial grade CFD, Star-CCM+, have been developed by CD-adapco and IFE.
- The methods have been validated against experiments for monopile, tension leg buoy and semi-submersible
- Ability to produce realistic results have been shown for high irregular sea